To The Memory Of Our Ancestors

Preface

The purpose of this mimeographed book is to make available this Genealogical material to the individuals whose families are related.

This book has been collected and placed here by several members of the family.

Because of the limited area and excessive time and cost of collecting this material with a small outlet or limited demand, it would not be considered by a commercial publisher.

The sources of materials employed are listed, as may be noted.

Note:
We start with 1-1 Dafydd, because he is the first one that we know.
2-1 Rhyddereh is son of (1-1)
3-1 Children of (2-1) etc

All persons who have contributed information, we hereby wish to make known our gratitude.

This book has been made possible by the generous help of many too numerous to mention.

Note: If there are mistakes on Welsh Tract Records, it is because notes were taken many years ago and my writing hard to read (now). Hope enough benefit will be gained nevertheless.

Welsh Baptists

The Welsh Tract Church, first in Delaware, was formed in Wales and came to this country as a body. Sixteen Baptists formed into a Baptist Church with Rev. Thomas Griffith, minister. In 1701 they came to America on the "James & Mary" and landed in Philadelphia 9/8/1701. They came to Pennepack near Philadelphia, where there was a Welsh Baptist Church.

In 1703 they removed to Iron Hill, then in Pennsylvania, but now in Pencader Hundred, New Castle Co., Del. The Welsh Tract consisted of 30 to 40,000 acres, mostly in Pencader Hundred, a long narrow strip on the Maryland line. About a quarter of Welsh Tract acres were in Cecil County, Md., and only 42 miles from Philadelphia. The Welsh Tract Baptist Church was the principal, if not the sole means of introducing singing psalms, imposition of hands, church covenants, etc., among the Baptists. Delaware Baptists were Calvanistic in doctrine.

Around 1700 differences arose among them touching the Sabbath, which broke up the Society. Those who adherred to observation of the 7th day kept together at Newton. The rest lay scattered in the neighborhood until 1715 when Rev. Abel MORGAN gathered them together and formed the church of the Brandywine. (The Buckingham's transferred from Brandywine to the Welsh Tract and later to London Tract. JANE JONES married William Buckingham)

The Welsh Tract Church was the mother church of:

south	Pedee, S.C.	1736
north	London Tract (18 mem.)	1780
s. west	Duck Crk.	1783
n. east	Wilmington	1785

Key to Welsh Pedigrees

ap means "son of"; as a prefix shortened to p or b
ap Howell becomes Powell
ap Henry " Penny
ap Owen " Bowen, etc
"tat" means father; "Mam" means mother if; verch or vulz" means dau. of
A common thing in that country was for children to take the name of their father instead of name of their progonitors, joining to it by a string of aps. This was given up by 1660.
